

1. God has made His church to be one body with many members. (12:12-13)
2. Christians become members of local churches because God intentionally arranged and gifted them to serve the local church. (12:14-20)
3. Christians become members of local churches because they need each other as God has designed. (12:21-26)
4. Christians should desire to use their spiritual gifts in the context of the local church. (12:27-31a)

Application:

1. God has made His church to be one body with many members. (12:12-13)
2. Christians become members of local churches because God intentionally arranged and gifted them to serve the local church. (12:14-20)
3. Christians become members of local churches because they need each other as God has designed. (12:21-26)
4. Christians should desire to use their spiritual gifts in the context of the local church. (12:27-31a)

Application: