

1. Jesus' opponents were seeking something to use against him. (3:1-2)
2. Jesus has godly anger and grief at the hardness of peoples' hearts.
(3:3-5a)
3. Irony: Jesus does good on the Sabbath while the Pharisees do evil.
(3:5b-6)
4. Despite opposition from the religious leaders, Jesus continued to draw crowds. (3:7-10)
5. The unclean spirits opposed Jesus, but he would not let them ruin his mission. (3:11-12)

Application:

1. Jesus' opponents were seeking something to use against him. (3:1-2)
2. Jesus has godly anger and grief at the hardness of peoples' hearts.
(3:3-5a)
3. Irony: Jesus does good on the Sabbath while the Pharisees do evil.
(3:5b-6)
4. Despite opposition from the religious leaders, Jesus continued to draw crowds. (3:7-10)
5. The unclean spirits opposed Jesus, but he would not let them ruin his mission. (3:11-12)

Application: