

1. The kingdom of God might not be evident to all now, but it will be revealed. (4:21-23)
2. How one responds to God's kingdom now, will determine their state in the fully revealed kingdom of God. (4:24-25)
3. God grows His kingdom in ways that we cannot observe and His kingdom will be fruitful. (4:26-29)
4. The kingdom of God may appear insignificant in the world now, but its greatness and glory will be seen. (4:30-32)
5. Jesus reveals His kingdom and explains it to those who truly follow Him by faith. (4:33-34)

Application:

1. The kingdom of God might not be evident to all now, but it will be revealed. (4:21-23)
2. How one responds to God's kingdom now, will determine their state in the fully revealed kingdom of God. (4:24-25)
3. God grows His kingdom in ways that we cannot observe and His kingdom will be fruitful. (4:26-29)
4. The kingdom of God may appear insignificant in the world now, but its greatness and glory will be seen. (4:30-32)
5. Jesus reveals His kingdom and explains it to those who truly follow Him by faith. (4:33-34)

Application: