

1. Christians are to be distinct from the world and not attached to it. (6:14-16a)
2. Christians are distinct from the world because of their familial relationship with God. (6:16b-18)
3. Christians have a relationship with God that causes them to fight sin. (7:1)
4. Christians live lives that are dependent upon one another. (7:2-4)

Application:

1. Christians are to be distinct from the world and not attached to it. (6:14-16a)
2. Christians are distinct from the world because of their familial relationship with God. (6:16b-18)
3. Christians have a relationship with God that causes them to fight sin. (7:1)
4. Christians live lives that are dependent upon one another. (7:2-4)

Application: