

1. The unnamed relative is willing to redeem Naomi's land. (4:1-4)
2. The unnamed relative is unwilling to sacrifice money to redeem Ruth. (4:5-6)
3. Boaz makes his self-sacrificial redemption of Ruth official. (4:7-10)
4. The witnesses ask God to bless the offspring of Boaz and Ruth. (4:11-12)
5. God fills Naomi's and Ruth's family through the birth of a son. (4:13-17a)
6. God's greater blessing: Obed is King David's grandfather and Jesus comes from his family line. (4:17b-22)

Application:

1. The unnamed relative is willing to redeem Naomi's land. (4:1-4)
2. The unnamed relative is unwilling to sacrifice money to redeem Ruth. (4:5-6)
3. Boaz makes his self-sacrificial redemption of Ruth official. (4:7-10)
4. The witnesses ask God to bless the offspring of Boaz and Ruth. (4:11-12)
5. God fills Naomi's and Ruth's family through the birth of a son. (4:13-17a)
6. God's greater blessing: Obed is King David's grandfather and Jesus comes from his family line. (4:17b-22)

Application: