

1. The gospel work of Christians always triumphs in Christ, even without worldly success. (2:12-14)

2. Christians always represent God and the gospel to the world. (2:15)

3. Rejecting the gospel leads to death, embracing the gospel leads to life.
(2:16a)

4. No person is sufficient or powerful enough to save people, only God is.
(2:16b-17)

Application:

1. The gospel work of Christians always triumphs in Christ, even without worldly success. (2:12-14)

2. Christians always represent God and the gospel to the world. (2:15)

3. Rejecting the gospel leads to death, embracing the gospel leads to life.
(2:16a)

4. No person is sufficient or powerful enough to save people, only God is.
(2:16b-17)

Application: